

Interesting angles make this home unique from the moment you step inside. Anchoring the entry is an open oak staircase set on an angle for added interest. The great room offers plenty of space for both living and dining. A bay area with sliding glass doors makes casual dining a delight. This kitchen is a cook's dream, with ample cabinetry and a center island.

1888 Square Feet Finished